

Import Data to Neo4j

The default local folder where Cypher expects CSV files when you are importing data is the import folder for the DBMS. Open a finder window on your system by hovering over the three dots to the right started DBMS and select Open folder, and then Import.

You can copy or move CSV files into this import folder. With CSV files here, you can use LOAD CSV to import data into your database.

